The Ivy That Clings To The Wall

Here on the far side of time we're near the end of the line.
Our days have grown withered and small
like the ivy that clings to the wall.

Off on the long road to home
we're meant to go it alone, still there are times we recall
the ivy that clings to the wall.

We hurriedly ran from the safety of schoolyards in search of a better more beautiful world.
One day we turned in the road to find our new worlds were all in our minds . . .

But seasons can change after all
like the ivy that clings to the wall.

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS: President, M. Cordoza, Vice-President, T. Inzeo, Secretary, Lora Buglione, Treasurer, K. Moran, Moderator, Miss Jakymec.

We, the Senior Class, leave

. . . to Sr. Mary Roy, a hit Broadway play, starring her own cast of Cathedralites.

. . . to Sr. Lucille, an identification badge, so that people will know she is assistant principal.

. . . to Fr. Cuneo, a new series of Insight movies.

. . . to Sr. Judith, a gift certificate to the "Nearly New Shop" to buy her wardrobe for the next five years.

. . . to Sr. Mary Alice, a wardrobe of scarves to match all her outfits.

. . . to Fr. Federici, the girls of the Junior Class.

. . . to Miss Jakymec, 1001 ways to fix your hair —Ukranian style.

. . . to Sr. Karen, a pair of squeaky shoes, so students can hear her coming.

. . . to Sr. Joan, a student council which will hopefully carry out parliamentary procedure.

. . . to Mr. Glynn, Mrs. Holmes and Juan, a bottle of janitor in a drum.

. . . to Sr. Colette, a bottle of sleeping pills to use on the next Senior retreat, and memories of Helen.

. . . to Mrs. Golembeski, a list of synonyms for "okay."

. . . to Miss Jenkins, a patent for a new non-skipping typewriter and a chance to see her cheerleaders perform.

. . . to Mrs. Jones, a new ghost writer for her anouncements.

. . . to Miss Millea, a problem-free schedule for next year.

. . . to Senora Barrios, her own special train.

. . . to Sr. Rene, a pair of stilts so that she can see eye to eye with her students.

. . . to Sr. Anne Emilienne, a copy of the Gallic Wars, personally autographed by Julius Caesar.

. . . to Sr. Jacqueline, a set of fourth grade Earth Science books to refresh the memories of her students.

. . . to Mrs. Robinson, the joy of knowing a five-day work week.

. . . to Mrs. DiSantos, a sound proof classroom.

. . . to Mrs. Thornhill, a pictorial history of English Literature.

. . . to Miss McMahon, a ninety day, all expense paid vacation to the Sunnyside Sanitarium to recuperate from being the Senior Class Moderator.

. . . to Sr. Diane, a case of unbreakable beakers.

. . . to Miss DeBlasio, a bottle of candy aspirins that she can give out.

. . . . to Mrs. Loso, the thing she can use most—earplugs.

. . . to Mrs. Buzak, a copy of The Little Prince in French.

. . . to Sr. Albert, the hope that she will be as happy in her new school as she was at Cathedral.

. . . to Mrs. Redgate, our sincere thanks for the 1971 issue of Aeon, and for all the time and effort she has devoted to it.

I, Donna Petronchak, leave my seat in accounting class to Anna Ozzi so she can have peace and quiet, and my cheerleading uniform with many memories to anyone who wants it.

I, Trish O'Connor, leave a soft new rag to polish all the desks in Cathedral with to Rose Pellegrino.

I, Laurie Gildea, leave my position as center on the basketball team and my borrowed Cons to Carol LeClaire.

I, Mary Ann Rooney, leave my fantastic ability in typing to Sue Bondeson.

I, Kathleen Finch, leave Mrs. Golembeski, F.S.A., and the task of making coffee before each meeting to Anna Ozzi.

I, Candie DiMenno, leave my library aide pins and all my overdue books to Helen Pluchinski; also my list of famous J.C.'s to anyone who can find a suitable use for them.

I, Isabel Machado, leave my economics notebook to any Junior who plans to take art classes next year.

I, Julie Ratzenberger, leave to Roxanne Dogali, a lot of luck and a great big wish for a fantastic Senior year.

I, Joannie Turshmann, leave my unreal ability to get into unbelievable situations and my religion notes to Jeanmarie Altieri.

I, Martha Lyons, leave my streaked hair, my famous class trait, "Flirt," and my old algebra notes to Arlene Walewski.

I, Sharon Szabo, leave to Debbie Hodkowski, the happiness and hope of wearing her Kolbe ring as long as I've been wearing mine.

I, Eleanor Sabo, leave my professional spelling champion award to Donna Golaszewski.

I, Barbara Tar, leave my math notebooks to any Junior who may be suffering through math.

I, Michelle Verrilli, leave to Rose Pellegrino, my fabulous attendance record, hoping that she will follow in my footsteps.

I, Barbara Sharnick, leave the Biology Lab to Kathy Carr and my needle and thread from homemaking class to Betty Lopez.

I, Michele Papriello, leave my fantastic basketball ability to Eileen Mohyde, hoping that she will excel in the sport as I did.

I, Ann Emily Wolczek, leave my rocking ability to Sally Wynne.

I, Kathy Pavliscsak, leave my Steno I book to Debbie Minotti.

I, Doreen Palmiero, leave my great driving ability along with my ability to finish homework just in time to Donna Palmiero. She can use it.

I, Liz Sokira, leave my gym uniform and everything else that's in the basket to Linda Nykaza.

I, Pat Timpanelli, leave Rose Madafferi my fluency in Spanish which has totally baffled Mrs. Barrios.

I, Carole Packo, leave my memories of math class to Mary Ann Brady, along with a 45 R.P.M. recording of the immortal song, "God Bless Spiro Agnew."

I, Marthe Wentovich, leave my Shag, my great chemistry abiliy and my four year old gym suit to Donna Palmiero.

I, Susan Papariello, leave my P.O.D. notebook to Rose Pellegrino, and I hope she'll find it useful for future reference.

I, Joyce Clark, leave my smiling ability to Arlene Walewski.

I, Felicia Zera, leave Cathedral a happy person.

I, Ginny Waterman, leave my athletic ability to Debbie Phillips.

I, Maureen Jordan, leave my P.O.D. notes and my record of perfect attendance to Anna Ozzi.

I, Donna Packo, leave to Sharon Brescia, my athletic basketball timing fingers.

I, Michele Monte, leave.

I, Cathy Banick, leave my square dancing ability, a slightly used steno pad, half of all my broken rings, and the honor of daily feeding "Bat" to Barbara Duch.

I, Gail D'Addario, leave to Marianne Vlahac my excellent pronunciation in French.

I, Angela Boulais, leave my fantastic ability in sewing to Betty Lopez.

I, Iris Perez, leave my great typing ability to Barbara Duch and my 20/50 vision to Rose Modafferi.

I, Patty Cruite, leave my ability to blush, my love of art class and my seat on the Prep bus to any junior.

I, Gina Mazza, leave my cheerleading ability and uniform to Nancy Humphrey.

I, Colleen Climielewski, leave my ability to be accident-prone and my nickname "Charlie" to anyone who wants it.

I, Wanda Anne Tyszka, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath my permanent seat in the guidance office, and my outstanding moral qualities to Mary Ann Brady.

I, Margaret Rotini, leave my height, my constant messages from the office, and American History notes to Loretta Woodworth.

I, Gail Slovensky, leave a pair of brown suede patches that were given to me by a senior last year, to Sharon.

I, Francine Lachance, leave a handmade button hole to any junior who is willing to take homemaking next year.

I, Linda DaCosta, leave my jammer bears, my cheerleading papers, and my acting ability to Joyce Bachinski.

I, Margaret Mary Gluck, leave eight sample tomatoes and Mr. Kanuchi's calling card to Eileen Mohyde.

I, Betty Blais, leave my ability to write a ten page letter every night to any "lucky" junior who has a boyfriend away at college.

I, Valerie Lally, leave my English grammar book, a chicken, and my gym socks to Cardidad Munoz.

I, Eilizabeth E. Edwards, leave my black, shiny hair, and my flexability to my future twin Rocky.

I, Nancy Rech, leave gladly.

I, Mary Bonfanti, leave to my sister, Emma, my parking space.

I, Colleen Connors, leave to Sr. Colette the first volume of Helen Krusinski's memoirs; also to JoAnn Szuch and Sharon Leckrone, my little pals WeeWee Smith and Fred. Take good care of them.

I, Elizabeth Brougliton, leave to Viki Sorge, a little of my height so she can see over everyone's head.

I, Patti Duch, leave my page-filled steno pads, my strawberry bubble gum bubble bath, and my typing eraser to any unfortunate soul who somehow seemed to have hers disappear.

I, Sheila Haskin, leave my good nature, warped sense of humor, all of my demerits and detentions and my P.O.D. notes to Rose Pellegrino.

I, Pat Jarzynski, leave to any junior who wants them, my seat in Economics and my economic notebook which consists of two pages of beautiful art work.

I, Betty Clark, leave my giggle to Anna Ozzi, my sarcasm to Arlene Walewski, and my steno abilities to the great juniors in Steno I.

I, Mary O'Neil, leave my "excuses to be used when late" to any junior who may have needs of them.

I, Barbara Kosydar, leave my courage, athletic ability and the task of feeding pidgeon, fifth period everyday to any junior.

I, Linda Krutz, leave my athletic ability to Kathy Carr.

I, Donna Grannonio, leave my small size, my nickname "Mouth", and my stumpy legs to anyone who can handle them.

I, Eileen McCarthy, leave to Margie Cleary, our overwhelming Senior privileges, my warning slip in gym and my Betty Crocker pin.

I, Leslie Falanga, leave to Rocky Figueroa, my athletic ability in softball and my golden glove.

DRAMA CLUB

This year the Drama Club of Cathedral was organized under the direction of Sr. Mary Roy. With suggestions from students and the help of the four officers, the girls in the club prepared to produce the one act play Don't Tell The Folks Back Home. This play was performed for the student body before our Christmas vacation. The Drama Club also encourages girls to work toward joining the Thespian Society, which is a national dramatic society. Girls are allowed entrance into the society "for meritorious participation in Dramatic Arts."

STUDENT COUNCIL

Cathedral's Student Council got off to a good start when it elected officers at the end of last year. By doing this, the officers and committee heads were able to get together over the summer and make plans for the best year ever.

An Orientation program was arranged to welcome Cathedral's freshmen early in September. Many other events soon followed: a successful magazine drive, a Harvest Party, a Kolbe-Cathedral basketball game and the filling of Thanksgiving baskets for the poor. In addition to these activities, Student Council sells candy on Friday during all the lunch periods.

The 1970-71 officers, who have led the Student Council under the guidance of Sr. Joan, are President Elizabeth Broughton, Vice-President Kathleen Collier, Secretary Paula Flynn, Treasurer Coleen Noonan.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL ADVISORY BOARD: D. Grannonio, T. O'Connor, Sr. Joan, M. M. Gluck, M. C. Collier, E. Clark, A. Wolczek, E. Mohyde, C. Connors.

Absent: J. LaFerriere, V. Garafalo, E. Broughton, A. Boulais.

"Z"

Last year an action and discussion group called "Z" was formed. The name "Z" is derived from a Greek letter meaning "He lives". The "He" is in reference to Christ. Contrary to many beliefs this club was not organized for religious purposes. It evolved because a group of girls wanted to discuss current affairs which they thought were revelant to their lives. Some activities sponsored by "Z" have been: films, guest speakers, open discussions, and a retreat with another school. "Z" is under the guidance of Sr. Diane Gillis, F.S.E. and Fr. James Cuneo. Its officers for the 1970-71 year are President Cooki Thompson, Vice-president Sharon Mohyde, Secretary Kathy Jones, and Treasurer Viki Sorge. The members of "Z" are spirited, interested girls who have given their time in an attempt to make themselves more aware of the meaningful values of human life.

Athletic Association

The Athletic Association is in its initial year at Cathedral High School. Under the direction of Mrs. Carol Jones, the A.A. hopes to promote more school spirit by helping to support the Cougars in both basketball and softball. The Athletic Association is divided into two clubs, the Pep Club and the Money Makers (the M&M).

The Pep Club, guided by the Cathedral Cheerleaders, forms a spirited cheering section for our Cougars. The M&M's, through cake sales and selling of Cougar booster buttons, supply the funds necessary to keep the A.A. on its feet.

Services rendered by Cathedral's Athletic Association include A.A. cards, which allow the holder to attend MBIAC and FCIAC games at half price, buses to the Cougar's away games, and the annual Sports Banquet.
